| 1 | O Love, that will not let me go,       | I rest my wea-ry soul in Thee;       |
| 2 | (O Light, that) follows all my way,    | I yield my flick'ring torch to Thee; |
| 3 | (O Joy, that) seeketh me through pain, | I cannot close my heart to Thee;     |
| 4 | (O Cross, that) liftest up my head,    | I dare not ask to fly from Thee;     |

| I give Thee back the life I owe,        | That in Thine o- cean depths its flow  |
| My heart re- stores its bor- rowed ray, | That in Thy sun- shine's blaze its day |
| I trace the rain- bow through the rain, | And feel the pro- mise is not vain     |
| I lay in dust life's glo- ry dead,      | And from the ground there blossoms red |

| May richer ful- ler be.      | 2 | O Light, that |
| May brighter, fairer be.     | 3 | O Joy, that   |
| That morn shall tearless be. | 4 | O Cross, that |
| Life that shall endless be.  |   |               |
